

THE PEPPER POTS

TRAIN TO YOUR LOVER

Wanna Blindly Trust In You

I've been hurt so many times
I've had to lock my heart
I will not easily give the key Life is sad without love but I've been down and out time heals uuuuh trust me

I wanna love (I wanna love) and not be alone
I wanna blindly trust in you (Oh yeah my baby)
I wanna feel and have something real forgetting all the pain I've owned

No more chances there're for me (no more baby)
I will put up my guard (my guard baby)
If something like this happens again
I have had my share of love (of love baby)
No more romance for me (no more baby)
Time heals uuuh trust me

I wanna love and not be alone
I wanna blindly trust in you
I wanna feel and have something real
forgetting all the pain I've owned

When love is fake and poor, please don't hesitate no
You will find someone don't give up, he is somewhere out there

I wanna love and not be alone
I wanna blindly trust in you
I wanna feel and have something real
forgetting all the pain I've owned

I wanna love and not be alone
I wanna blindly trust in you
I wanna feel and have something real
forgetting all the pain I've owned
